ROBERTSON'S HALF-DIME MUSIC.

BELIEVING that whatever tends to amuse and instruct, to cultivate and develop the mind or to elevate the character and diversify the nature of Home enjoyments, is ever welcome to the Canadian People, this series is respectfully presented. Our object is to enable all classes—rich and poor—who have a desire for Music, to become possessed of all the popular productions of the day, without incurring an almost prohibitory expense. In a word, to supply CHOICE MUSIC AT A PRICE WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL; to assist the young beginner, as well as to cater to the requirements of professionals. One or more numbers will be issued weekly. Original and Imported vocal and instrumental pieces will be catalogued as issued, while the variety will embrace Sacred, Operatic, Pathetic, Comic, and in fact all classes of Music to meet the popular demand. The price of each Number will be FIVE CENTS. The following are now ready:

- No. 1—Where the Woodbine Twineth. A very attractive Ballad.
- 2—Don't be Sorrowful, Darling. A beautiful Song and Chorus.
- 3—Put me in my Little Bed. Always popular. (Twelfth thousand.)
- 4—The Old Man's Drunk Again. By WILL HAYS. Humorous.
- 5—Driven from Home. Few Songs as popular as this.
- 6—Meet and Chandon. One of the Cool Burgess gems.
- 7—Castles in the Air. The new version.—Good.
- 8—As Good as Gold. Very pretty.
- 9—In her Little Bed we Laid Her. A favorite Little Ballad.
- 10—Oh, Ain't he Sweet on Me. A lively Ballad for the Ladies.
- 11—You know how it is Yourself. Song by DAN BRYANT.
- 12—Take me to the Ball To-night. One of Nilsson's gems.
- 13—Let Me Be. Companion to "Shoo, Fly."
- 14—Save the Boy. This little Home Song appeals to thousands of sorrowing hearts.
- 15—Gone Before. A sweet and delicate Song.
- 16—The Man o' Airlie. A gem that should be on every piano.
- 17—Paving the Way. A beautiful Song and Chorus.
- 18—Jerusalem the Golden. (SACRED.) Very fine.
- 19—Nobody's Darling. Sweet and attractive.
- 20—Her Bright Smile Haunts Me still. Old, but good.
- 21—Jenny who Lives in the Bell. The Song of the Day.
- 22—Secrets. CLARIBEL. A capital Song.
- 23—Drifting. CLARIBEL. One of the most popular.
- 24—I love the Merry Sunshine. Simple and pretty.
